Pan IIT Alumni Leadership Series held

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Chennai: The Pan IIT Alumni Leadership Series (PALS), an educational initiative of all IIT Alumni, conducted an entrepreneurial summit on the theme "Our Academic Institutions are gold mines for nurturing budding entrepreneurs" and valediction 2018-19 with key speakers from the Tamil Nadu Government and IIT. Top management, faculty and students from various engineering colleges in Tamil Nadu as well as Industry partners, IIT Alumni and IIT academia participated in the event. V. Irai Anbu, IAS, additional chief secretary to TN Government, Director General (Training) and Director Anna Institute of Management was the chief guest and Bhaskar Ramamurthi, director, IIT Madras was the guest of honour. Mohan Narayanan, chairman PALS presented the PALS annual report for 2018-19.

He spoke about the major achievements of PALS, how the organization has grown over the years from six partner institutions in 2012 to 28 partner institutions in 2018 spanning Chennai, Trichy and Coimbatore clusters.

The chief guest, Irai Anbu said that students should be inspired early in their life to be entrepreneurs. He urged that academic environments must be made conducive for expressing creativity and the right kind of faculty must be employed in the e-cells.

It was followed by an Awards Ceremony, in which prizes and certificates, won for various events over the year were given to the students and partner institutes.

WINNERS AWARDED AT PALS SUMMIT

Chennai: The winners of the "innova H" Innovation Challenge and quiz contests were honoured at PALS entrepreneurial summit and valediction held in the city.

The Pan IIT Alumni Leadership Series (PALS), education initiative of all IIT Alumni, conducted an entrepreneurial summit on the theme "Our Academic institutions are gold mines for nurturing budding entrepreneurs" and valediction 2018-19 with key speakers from the Tamil Nadu Government, IIT and Industry.

Top management, faculty and students from various engineering colleges in Tamil Nadu as
